Tailgating RV STYLE

An RV takes tailgating to a whole new level. There's no need to worry about the ice in your cooler melting or finding a place to heat up your snacks. You'll have a roof over your head in rain or shine, and you'll never again stand in line to use a public restroom! The following tips will help you create the best tailgate party ever.

LEAVE EARLY

Get to the stadium early to snag a prime parking space. Look for a spot beside the grass or at the end of the row. That way, you'll have plenty of room to open your awning and set out chairs.

FOOD PREP

Turning on your RV fridge/freezer before the big game will keep your food fresh and your drinks cold. Wondering what food to serve? Check out all the terrific ideas in "Roadworthy Recipes" on the GoRVing.com web site. We've included one of Chef Bryan's below just to whet your appetite.

Whatever you decide to eat, have it ready an hour or two before the game begins. This will give you time to eat and stash leftovers in the fridge before you head into the stadium.

SHOW YOUR COLORS

Fly the school flag, or some other flag, from the RV roof so friends and fellow alumni can find you.

PERSONAL HIGHLIGHTS

Entertain guests by showing football highlights or past game triumphs on your on-board TV and DVR. After the game, relax with friends and watch post-game highlights as you let the traffic die down.

CLEAN UP

Don't forget to leave your spot clean at the end of the day. Bring plenty of trash bags—and take them with you when you go.

An RV makes even short trips, like the nearest stadium, a lot more fun.

Salmon with Bell Peppers and Artichoke Hearts

COURTESY CHEF BRYAN WOOLLEY

- 1 jar marinated artichoke hearts, drained, marinade reserved
- 1/3 cup white wine
- 4 salmon fillets (4-6 ounces each)
- 2 medium red bell peppers, cut lengthwise
- 1 onion, sliced
- 1 bunch green onions, sliced
- salt and pepper to taste
- extra virgin olive oil

1. Mix the reserved artichoke marinade together with the white wine. Place the salmon fillets in the marinade and let them marinate for 15 minutes.
2. While salmon is marinating, heat a large sauté pan on the stove and add just enough olive oil to lightly coat the bottom of the pan. Add the bell peppers, onion, green onions, and artichoke hearts to the sauté pan.
3. Sauté until tender and place on a baking sheet.
4. Remove the salmon fillets from the marinade and place them on the baking sheet next to the vegetables.
5. Place under a broiler for approximately 5 minutes or until salmon is cooked through and vegetables are slightly charred.
6. Serve with a green salad, avocados and tomatoes. Enjoy!
